

Literature Circles

Continue with your set Literature Circles reading and follow-up tasks. One task each week is plenty. You can choose which order to do this in. Make sure you try each of the tasks once.

Find Out...

Who was Queen Victoria? Read about her life and reign as queen using reliable sources. Take notes as you read and use these to write a fact file. You could present it as a poster, leaflet, word document or slide show.

Sumdog Grammar

Continue to log into Sumdog regularly to try the grammar challenges that we are setting for you.

Spelling

Weekly spelling lists for each group will be issued on Teams. Explore the pattern and learn your words using the usual active strategies. Then log into Sumdog to do your weekly spelling assessment. Good luck!

Home Learning P5

School Closure Week 7 Literacy

Interdisciplinary Learning: The Victorians

Picking out the Main Ideas

Carefully read the Alexander Graham Bell Fact Sheet. Now create a flow chart sequencing the key events in his life. You could draw, write and illustrate this it by hand or create it digitally.

Write a Letter

Write a letter to be posted back in time to Alexander Graham Bell. Explain what life is like in 2020. You could write about modern technology, how life has changed or the impact of coronavirus.

Remember to include:

Your Address (right hand side)

Today's Date (right hand side)

The Greeting (Dear...)

The Body (written in paragraphs)

Closing paragraph

Sign Off (Yours Sincerely...)

Vivid Vocabulary

Read the Alexander Graham Bell Fact Sheet again. Pick out any words that are interesting, ambitious or unfamiliar. Can you work out what they mean using the context clues?

Check your answers using an online dictionary. Use an online thesaurus to find other words with similar meanings (synonyms).

Listening and Talking

What would Alexander Graham Bell think of today's telephones? Use your modern day telephone or device to have a conversation with a friend or family member this week. Plan some questions to ask or topics for discussion. You could share some of your learning or come up with some quiz questions.