To practise your words this week let's get cutting and sticking!

RANSOM WORDS

"Write" your words out by cutting out letters from a newspaper or magazine and gluing the letters on a piece of paper to spell your words.

If you don't have a newspaper/magazine to use then you could write and colour your letters as bubble writing and draw a coloured square around them and then cut these out and stick them on to a new piece of paper.

When you have finished make sure to take a photo and post on the Spelling channel.

Ask someone in your home to test you on Friday morning and post your score in the Spelling channel, can you beat last week?
