

Detective Who What Where Why

Study the picture in the document. Do you find anything strange about it? Put on your detective hat and start questioning. For example, 'Why is the cat in the bird cage?' How many questions can you come up with? Your questions must start with either who/what/where or why. Why questions will be probably be the more obvious, so start with them then move onto the more challenging who, what and where.

Bing-Bong

Have a look at the document which is based on Bing-Bong from the movie 'Inside Out'.

Can you identify and explain what qualities make a good friend?

Answer the 4 questions making sure you use full sentences when you do.

When you are finished you could create your imaginary friend by designing a poster or by building a model by using recyclable materials/Lego/play-doh etc -post your creation in the Art Channel.

Feedback Fairies

Last week we were working on an imaginative text. This week I would like you to give feedback to your peers. First, read through the document. Then pick 3 imaginative text from the Writing Channel to read through and then give 2 pieces of feedback by using the feedback phrases for help.

Literacy

All of these activities have a document to go with them.

Please can everybody be a feedback fairy first, then choose from the other activities, which ones you would like to do and in what order.

Anything you complete you can upload to the Writing Assignment.

Heroes

Have a look at the image on the document. Before you start the questions just have a think about what you can see and how the image makes you feel.

The Little Mermaid

Explore the document in the materials folder. Have a listen, sing-a-long, have a boogie and have a go at answering the questions.

Snapshot Mat

Print the document (or copy it into a jotter or on a piece of paper) and explore the different tasks.

The title- Imagine this was the image used for a book cover or a DVD, what would the title of the story be?

How does this make you feel?- Use adjectives of emotion and explain why you think it makes you feel that way.

Vocabulary- If you were to write an information report on THIS IMAGE, what key vocabulary words would you include? For example, you could have 'turret' or 'reflection', but you couldn't have 'portcullis'.

What could happen next?- If this image was the opening scene of an action movie, what do you think could happen in the first few minutes of the movie?
